6. Shelter hearings will be addressed by the five (5) family-law judges as set forth above. In the absence of such judges, the judge who is assigned to handle weekend and after-hours matters will hear the shelter hearings as required to comply with time restraints. In addition, all Marion County Circuit Judges will assist with the shelter hearings when necessary.

7. In any Domestic Violence and Repeat Violence cases where the parties have a pending domestic relations cases, such domestic/repeat violence case shall be assigned to the judge handling the domestic relations case. In any newly filed domestic relations cases where a Petition for Injunction for Protection has previously been filed, the domestic relations case shall be assigned to whichever judge handled the injunction.

8. Petitions for injunction and other after-hours requests which require judicial action on weekends, holidays and between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 8:30 a.m. on weekdays will be reviewed by all judges sitting in Marion County (Circuit Judges and County Judges) on a rotating basis. Such rotation shall be listed in the weekend and holiday duty assignments as set forth by a separate administrative order. In each case where a County Judge has such an assignment, said judge is hereby appointed as an acting Circuit Judge for the duration of such assignment. Likewise, a Circuit Judge is hereby appointed as an acting County Judge in any instance where County Court jurisdiction is required during such assignment.

9. Prior to noon on each Friday, the judge assigned to handle First Appearances, Shelter Hearings, and Detention Hearings that weekend will be delivered the duty judge telephone and briefcase which he/she will retain until the next Friday at noon, at which time the duty judge telephone and briefcase will be delivered to the next assigned judge. When a holiday falls on a Friday, the duty will switch at noon and the holiday will be split between the two judges on that day. It will be the responsibility of the morning duty judge to handle all First Appearances, Shelter Hearings, and Detention Hearings. Each judge so assigned (the "Duty Judge") will be responsible for ensuring that a judge is available during usual courthouse business hours (8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday), except lunch hour, to help to review petitions for injunctions and other matters which require immediate attention. The hearing dates and times required on petitions for injunctions that are filed after hours, on weekends, and on holidays will be provided by Judge Robbins.

10. The assignment for service as judge for juror qualification for 2018 is addressed in a separate administrative order.

11. Each judge of the felony divisions will be responsible to attend to any grand jury matters during a three-month period which will be rotated as follows:
