

EC₃

“EC₃” is Judge McCune’s “Expedited Criminal Case Calendar”. This calendar will be considered each Friday morning starting promptly at 8 o’clock. Should Judge McCune not be available on a particular Friday, then Judge McCune will try to hold an EC₃ at another time during that particular week. For a case to be considered on any particular EC₃, all of the following requirements must be complied with:

REQUIREMENTS

1. You must obtain the consent of an Assistant State Attorney to have your matter taken up on a specific EC₃.
2. You must contact the Court’s Clerk by no later than 2:00 p.m. on the day prior to the specific EC₃ you desire to request that all cases pertaining to the matter you want the Court to consider are placed on the electronic docket for the hearings. Contact is to be made by email to: hearingnotification@marioncountyclerk.org.
3. You must contact the Court’s Certified Spanish Language Interpreter by no later than 2:00 p.m. on the day prior to the specific EC₃ you desire to request the Interpreter’s presence if your client needs such services. Contact is to be made by online request at www.circuit5.org. If your client needs some other interpreter services, then you must make the necessary arrangements to have such services available.
4. You must make all necessary arrangements for timely transport if your client is in custody.
5. You must bring a copy of all filings you want the Court to consider on a specific EC₃. This is required since your filings may not have been docketed and placed in the Court file by the time of the EC₃.
6. You must not bring a matter to EC₃ that cannot reasonably be completed within 15 minutes.
7. Failure to comply with all these requirements will result in your matter being passed to a later date.
