3. The deadlines established in this case management order, including actual and projected trial periods, shall be strictly enforced by the Court unless changed by court order pursuant to Florida Rules of Civil Procedure 1.200(e).
4. Parties may submit an agreed order to extend a deadline if the extension does not affect the ability to comply with the remaining dates in this Case Management Order. If extending an individual case management deadline may affect a subsequent deadline in this Order, parties must seek an amendment of the Order, rather than submitting a motion for extension of an individual deadline. Procrastination in completing discovery or the unavailability of counsel will not constitute good cause for a change to these deadlines. Failure to comply with deadlines may subject the parties to sanctions, including but not limited to, striking of discovery, witnesses, evidence, pleadings, imposition of attorney fees, and/or dismissal.

5. Warning as to Generative Artificial Intelligence:

a. An attorney may ethically utilize Generative Artificial Intelligence technologies but only to the extent that the lawyer can reasonably guarantee compliance with the lawyer's ethical obligations. See Florida Bar Ethics Opinion 24-1 (Jan. 19, 2024).

- Attorneys must comply with the Rules Regulating the Florida Bar, including but not limited to: Rule 4-1.1 Competency, Rule 4-1.6 Confidentiality, Rule 4-5.1 Supervision, and Rule 4-5.3 Supervision of non-lawyers.
- Attorneys remain responsible for all their work product.

b. Pro-Se Litigants (self-represented parties): If you choose to use programs that rely on Generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) to prepare any document that is submitted to the Court, it should be checked carefully before filing with the Clerk. Generative AI based programs are not a substitute for competent legal counsel. While they may be useful, there is a risk that they may produce inaccurate arguments, false citations, or bad advice. A self-represented litigant has the duty to check the accuracy of anything they submit to the Court.

c. Warning Regarding Rule 2.515(d)(2) Responsibilities

By filing any pleading, motion, or other document with this Court, each signer represents that they have read the document, there are good grounds to support it, it is not interposed for delay, and the legal authorities identified exist and are accurately cited. These responsibilities apply regardless of whether artificial intelligence tools were used. Sanctions may be imposed for any filing inconsistent with these representations.
